Problem statement: Find a solution of \( y' = \frac{y}{1 - x^2} \) which passes through \((0, 1)\). Write the solution explicitly as \( y = f(x) \). Graph the solution curve. What is the domain of the function describing the solution curve?