

> #Hrudai Battini Attendance Quiz 7

> #1: Who made the name "Monte Carlo Method"? John von Neumann and Stanislaw Ulam

> #2: Which of the many Bernoullis was the Bernoulli random variable named after? Jakob Bernoulli

> #3: Find an interesting application to biology of gambler's ruin process: The gambler's ruin process can be applied to the convergence quality of genetic algorithms based on their population size. The random walk process of gambler's ruin is applied to how the selection of genetic algorithms can be modeled.

>