

Finite size corrections for kinetically constrained models

Thierry Bodineau, Ecole Normale Supérieure

ABSTRACT

We will discuss the large deviations of the activity in kinetically constrained models. A first order phase transition occurs in these models due to the constraints in the dynamics. We will show that the finite size scaling of this first order dynamical phase transition is reminiscent of the transition occurring in the Ising model.