

Rutgers University
Hill Center - Room 705

Herbert Spohn, IAS Princeton and Technical University Munich
Thursday, January 30, 2014 - 12:00 PM

Equilibrium time correlations of anharmonic chain

Abstract

We discuss Fermi-Pasta-Ulam type chains. Their equilibrium measures are of product form. But the dynamical correlations of the conserved fields have an interesting structure, which we will try to capture through a nonlinear version of fluctuating hydrodynamics.