

Row Reduction

Row reduction is the way that we abstract this process of solving system of equations to just working with matrices. To do row reduction, we use the three elementary row operations.

The goal is to get to either the row echelon form or reduced row echelon form.