

A powerhouse is on one edge of a straight river and a factory is on the other edge, 100 meters downstream. The river is 50 meters wide. It costs 10 per meter to run electrical cable across the river and 7 per meter on land. How should the cable be installed to minimize the cost?