

Robert Mattox

[7, 43, 1982, 1993, 2, 2, 2]

Anthony J. F. Biagioli was born on September 12, in 1952 in Milwaukee. Got a bachelor from University of Missouri, St. Louis 1973. Later got a doctorate of philosophy at university of Wisconsin in 1982. He was a :lawton lecturer, Temple University, Philadelphia, 1982-1984; lecturer, University of Wisconsin, Madison, 1984-1985; assistant professor of mathematics, U. Missouri, Rolla, 1985-1990; assistant professor of mathematics, U. Center Arkansas, Conway, 1990-1992; visiting assistant professor at Berks campus, Pennsylvania State University, 1992; assistant professor, Muhlenberg College, 1993-1994. Noteworthy mathematics educator by Marquis who's who. He worked on the eta products which are simultaneous eigenforms of Hecke operators. He used ramanujan's modular equation of "large " prime degree. He is currently a software developer at Beckett associates in Naperville, Illinois.
https://prabook.com/web/anthony_john_francis.biagioli/3491700 Anthony Biagoli