

JACOB FAREBER'S EXILE IS ENDED.

Granting of a Pardon by Gov. Waite Brings to Light a Romance.

DENVER, Jan. 9. — J. M. Fareber, who was sentenced to the penitentiary in 1874 for manslaughter, but escaped to Mexico, and to whom Gov. Waite has granted a full pardon, is known in Mexico, where he has become rich and held important public offices as Miguel Latz. He is the head of the firm of M. Latz & Bro of Magdalena, Sonora, which is well known in the commercial circles of New York, San Francisco, and Hamburg.

He has been mayor of the city of Magdalena, deputy governor for that portion of the state of Sonora, fiscal agent of the federal and state governments, and enjoys the confidence and friendship of the best people in that part of Mexico. He became a citizen of Mexico in order to marry Donna Anita, the belle of Magdalena. Twelve years ago Gen. W. F. Button of Washington, D. C., for 10 years consulting engineer to Mexico, met Fareber and became interested in his case. It was through his efforts that Fareber's innocence was established and a pardon was obtained for him. Fareber, who is in ill health and is now about 50 years of age, is already on his way to New Orleans for medical treatment.
