Col N. H. Owings is in town and the guest of Hon. I. W. Stanton, of the United States Land office.

Tom Cooper, Keeling's dashing bus driver, has returned from a pleasure trip to Denver.

Mr. Richardson, of Indiana, who is prospecting in Southern Colorado, paid us a visit yesterday.

The name of the man who shot Sam Perry, at the Jew's ranch, near the Summit House, is Faraber, and not "Faraday," as published yesterday.

The Assembly Saloon, Bernard & Co., have reduced the price of liquors to fifteen cents per drink or two drinks for twenty-five cents. 604rd

Drugs, medicines, chemicals, fancy articles, and everything usually found in a well ordered drug store, may be obtained at the lowest prices at W. E. Marvin's drug store, Third street, near the depot, South Pueblo. d

NOTICE.—The accounts due the late firm of Robert Young & Co., have been turned over to me for collection. All parties indebted will please call and settle within ten days, as at the end of that time all unsettled accounts will be sued.
