Dear Freddie

I received your ^{ROCHLIN & LARAN} ~~AIA ARCHITECTS~~ information and will keep it on file

Between the fund and the Taylor collection I have managed to get a few nice pictures which will be of interest to you. They had a few of the Lohm Post Cards, one showed the Santa Cruz Valley Bank which I hadn't even heard of. It was the building which later became the Royals National Bank and which is now a dress shop. I have quite a few others. We are planning (at this time, anyway) to go to a L. A. Wedding the last week of June so I will bring them along.

Clair and I went to Magdalena yesterday on the Miguel Lutz quest I think this may be the most interesting one to date. A starting place would be the Inglewood Cemetery where Mr. Lutz is buried. Then work both ways from that time. We met a Mr. Ernesto Davila who lives in the original Lutz home (remodelled, of course) He is descended from Ferber - the brother. We did not see but she is there, Mrs. Arturo Moreno another descendant. We will
